A SPECIAL FEATURE OF WAVERLY NEWSPAPERS

Kellen Pugh

After high school, Kellen Pugh is planning on continuing his football career at Upper Iowa University and he will study psychology.

In addition to football, Kellen was a part of the basketball and tennis teams as well FFA.

"My favorite memory was playing football with the boys," Kellen said. "It was also my most valuable memory as I got to spend time with the guys that I love."

Kellen's parents are Amber and Michael. He has one brother, Kiefer, and one sister, Kemree.

Isaiah Perez Samuel Roose

Isaiah Perez plans on taking a gap year after high school.

During that year, he plans on working for Perez Drywall and then attend Hawkeye Community College to be a history teacher.

Isaiah's extra curricular activities included wrestling, football and rugby. In wrestling, Isaiah learned his most valuable lessons.

"Most favorite activity is wrestling because it took a lot time, hard work and dedication,"

Isaiah said. "These traits drove me to be a more skilled athlete and stronger person. My favorite memory from high school is going to duel team state wrestling with everyone. and cheering my friends on during finals, then winning state."

Isaiah's parents are Raymond and Desiree.

Samuel "Sam" Roose was a four-sport athlete at Waverly-Shell Rock during his time in high school.

Sam was a member of the football, basketball, track and baseball teams all four years of high school.

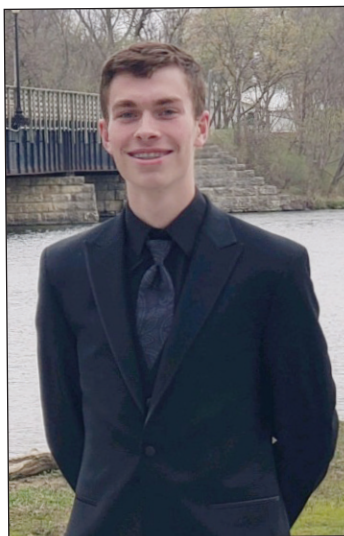

"My favorite activity throughout high school has been baseball because it is my favorite sport," Sam said. "I have always enjoyed it and high school only added to that. I have also competed in basketball, football and track all four years. My favorite memory of people in high school is hanging out and practicing with my friends every day creating memories."

Sam excelled both on the field and in the classroom as he was All-District as a defensive back, a state place winner in the shuttle hurdle relay, a member of the National Honor Society and he received the academic award every year.

After graduation, Sam plans on attending the University of Iowa and studying something within the business scope.

His parents are Rob and Jane. He has two brothers, Andy and Luke.

Marshall Meyer

Marshall Meyer, or Mr. Sunshine as his friends call him, was active in both the arts and athletics.

He was a member of the cross country, track and field teams, swimming, robotics and jazz band.

"My favorite memory was all the friends that I made along the way," Marshall said. "My most valuable activity was cross country because it taught me to be comfortable being uncomfortable."

After high school, Marshall plans on going to college for chemical engineering.
