Playoff Spot For Tri-Center Likely With Point Advantage Total Of Around 11 Points

Trojans Suffer Overtime Loss To Woodbury Central 36-34

Tri-Center suffered a 36-34 overtime loss to Woodbury Central Friday night during the Trojan's final home game of the season at Neola. The loss put the Trojans at 3-4 for the season but stand in the top half of the Class A District 8 standings so they are likely to get into the playoffs.

District 8 standings stand at (Team-Wins-Losses):

Woodbury	5-0	Lawton-Bronson	2-3
Logan-Magnolia	4-1	IKM-Manning	1-5
Tri-Center	3-2	Missouri Valley	0-5
Westwood	3-2

A win by Tri-Center over Westwood this coming Friday night on the road would assure advancing to the Playoffs but even with a loss, T-C will stand at 3-3 in the district with a point advantage of around 11 points which should keep them in the top four teams in the district to advance.

A Lawton-Bronson win over Logan-Magnolia would move them up to 3-2 but again, the point advantage Tri-Center holds should allow T-C a playoff spot.

Woodbury	7	14	7	0	=28	OT=36
