and old mill, tulip talks, Dutch Dozen shows, and a walk through the antique tractor show. Shoppers could enjoy the many retail stores that were open for business, or stroll through the art burst for local one of a kind pieces made from regional artisans. The Straatmarket opened daily at 10 a.m. with a variety of Dutch and not so Dutch treats, something for everyone! Two daily parades marched the streets beginning at 1 p.m. and 6 p.m. daily, with a record number of 840 children riding floats between the six parades. In between parades the sounds of the Dutch street organ and the Fietsen Zangers bicycle singers could be heard all throughout downtown.

Evenings Monday through Saturday night featured Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat nightshow. A cast and crew of nearly 100 took the stage for multiple sold out shows and ended to roaring applause from the audience.

JoAnn Weber, Tulip Festival Steering Committee chair shares, "I couldn't be happier with this year's Tulip Festival. The weather was fantastic, helping bring in large crowds from around the country, especially on Saturday. We like to thank all the volunteers who made the festival possible. It really brings Orange City together, and is a great way to showcase our wonderful town. We were honored and privileged to be a part of it, and are already looking forward to future festivals."
