

Your Kids Don't Want It. What Can You Do?

An upcoming event at the Fisher Whiting Memorial Library in Mapleton will help you answer this question.

We hear it every day: "My Children Don't Want It. What Can I Do?" And it's happening all over America. In this session Mike will give you 15 Tips & Strategies designed not only to help you deal with your "Stuff", but hopefully help you make some good money when selling it.

The virtual program will be Sept. 12 at 1 p.m. You can join us in the library for camaraderie, snacks and prizes, or you can participate in the comfort of your home. If you choose to participate from home, use the following link and passcode: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/87581533854?pwd=TmY3SVhwdkplTVVWkxT0dxOWTxa0pkUT09.Meeting>

...Meet the Area's NEW Teacher

Sam Hanson, MVAO Director of Maintenance

Sam Hanson is the new Director of Maintenance in Mapleton. Sam graduated from MVAO High School in 2009 and attended Wayne State College.

He then worked in maintenance at the Maple Heights Nursing Home for four years before farming for the past nine years with his family.

Sam has been a wrestling coach with our high school and junior high programs for the past 12 years.

Sam shared, "I am excited to learn all the ins and outs of the schools that I hadn't previously known and I'm also excited to be around a lot of my former classmates and teachers who are now or still working at the school, as well as those I haven't previously been around."

Sam said that he takes a lot of pride in the school and community and he looks forward to maintaining the school's great rapport.

Sam is an avid golfer when away from work, and he also works in the wrestling room with his athletes and he enjoys playing euchre with friends. He is a huge Chicago Cubs fan.

Sam has two nieces in the elementary school and his mother, Mary Jo Hanson, is an MVAO first grade teacher.

"Working around them also sounds pretty cool," shared Mr. Hanson. Sam's favorite quote is a Latin saying- Amat Victoria Curam: Victory Loves Preparation. "Pretty solid words to live by."

Kayla Green, Charter Oak-Ute, 2nd Grade

Kayla Green will be teaching second grade this year at Charter Oak-Ute. This is her first "full" year as a teacher. Last year she taught second grade at Mapleton Elementary (the entire second semester).

Green received her degree at Buena Vista University in December 2022.

She was raised in Ute and graduated from COU in 2010. She and her husband Derek have four children; Liam, Finn, Thomas and Frannie.

"Our free time is consumed by our children's activities, house projects, and spending quality time with our family and friends," Green said. "I absolutely love my community and it is truly an honor to serve it through educating the young people in it. I am eager to get to know my students and their families."

Leila Kuhlmann, Charter Oak-Ute, 6th-8th English

Leila Kuhlmann will be teaching 6-8 grade English first semester.

She taught for 12 years at Schleswig where she taught: special education, reading, ELA, social studies and directed the eighth grade play for five years.

After her children were mostly out of the house, she took classes for a degree in education from Western Iowa Tech and then Buena Vista.

Kuhlmann has lived in the Charter Oak-Ute area all of her life. She and her husband, Don, have three children: Andrew, Loni, and Jonathan and seven grandkids. They also have four exchange students who have three children that they keep in close touch with.

Kuhlmann loves to travel, read, spend time with her family, watch my grandkids in the activities.

"Everyday I learn something new," she said. "I want the students that I teach to love learning as much as I do and to never stop learning."

Crista Gierstorf will take over at the beginning of the 2nd semester. She will also be student-teaching with Kuhlmann during the second quarter.

Mandy Lauderbaugh, Schleswig Music

Mandy Lauderbaugh is the new K-8 Music and Band teacher in Schleswig. She also teaches 4th & 5th grade music in Denison.

She is starting her 19th year in education and has music (both vocal and band) taught at Estherville Lincoln Central, IKM-Manning, Ar-We-Va and Denison Community Schools.

She received her education from Central College in Pella after growing up on farm outside of Iowa Falls.

Lauderbaugh lives in Denison her husband, Todd, and their son Caleb (2nd grade) and daughter, Naomi (TK).

Her hobbies are spending time with family, helping out at church, reading, playing the piano, performing on her clarinet in the All Strings Attached Orchestra in Carroll as well as a couple times in the summer in Ackley's Little German Band.

Sandy Lundt, Schleswig Middle School

Sandy Lundt will be teaching sixth grade at Schleswig.

This is her eighth year teaching. She previously taught one year of high school special education, one year of second grade and five years of middle school.

She received her associates of arts degree at WITCC and bachelor degree in elementary education (K-6, K-8 Reading and K-8 SS) at Buena Vista.

Lundt grew in Anthon and now lived outside of Cushing.

Her family includes: her significant other Tyrel, daughter Dannie, son Casen, step daughter Ryleigh, granddaughters Oaklynn and Liliann.

Lundt's hobbies are reading, cooking, camping, shopping and spending time with her family.

"I am extremely excited to start my eighth year teaching at Schleswig CSD as the sixth grade teacher and to get to know the students and their families," she said.

Tara Redenius, Schleswig Middle School

This is Tara Redenius seventh year of teaching. She previously been a special education teacher and this is her first year doing general education. Redenius will be teaching 7th and 8th grade ELA and Social Studies.

She graduated with her undergrad from BVU and her master's from Northwestern.

Redenius graduated from Galva-Holstein. Her husband, Jamie is a farmer and they have two sons who attend OABCIG. They live in Battle Creek.

She like to go metal detecting, read biographies, geocache as she has a passion for history and English and she am looking forward to this upcoming year.
