

Third annual Sportsmans Summer Fest a success

Dave LaBelle • Staff Photos

Larry Pisarik ventures into the lake to unhook a snagged line during the Third annual Sportsmans Summer fest and fishing derby, June 17 at Sportsman Park in Cascade. It was the second trip into the lake to successfully free the hook and line after one of his grandchildren snagged another branch.

Larry Oswald shows a 14-inch largemouth bass he caught during the third annual Sportsman's Summer Fest.

Before the start of the fishing tournament, anglers and visitors order food and drinks at the concession during the third annual Sportsman's Summer Fest, June 17, at Cascade Sportsman's Park.

Beth Graves assists her daughter, Sophia Graves, 7, during the fishing derby.

Jericho Oswald, 6, waits for a bite during the Third annual Sportsmans Summer Fest and fishing derby.

Graham Pisarik, 10, shows off a bluegill, one of three he caught to garner the prize for most fish.

The winners of the fishing tournament at the third annual Sportsman's Summer Fest hold their prizes and gift certificates. From left, Graham Pisarik, most fish caught, Larry Oswald, biggest fish and Bob Moriarity, first fish.