

Making Grandma Ina proud

■ Sunshine ribbon cutting, open house is March 8

By CALEB NELSON
Adair County Free Press

Scraping tools and paint rollers have been in high gear at Sunshine Day Care lately. If you stop in, what you'll witness is a group of like-minded folks working tirelessly to get the center back open for Adair County children to come in and be loved.

Brashear

It's likely that if she were here today, "Grandma Ina" would be proud of her granddaughter

Katelyn Brashear, and all of the other volunteers and contributors, have done to give the day care at 110 NE Grant St. in Greenfield a face lift.

Ina Garside was director of Sunshine for 30 years. She passed away in August 2015 at the age of 68. For her love for them and their love for her, the children all called her "Grandma Ina."

Brashear hopes the daycare that opened in 1995 can continue serving children for many years to come. She wants to bring her children when their usual childcare provider is unavailable. Brashear was recently elected president of the Sunshine board.

In mid-January, the day care board announced a temporary closure. The center had been working

SUNSHINE
Continued on p 4

ACFP photo by CALEB NELSON
A telltale sign work was still to be done last week in renovating Sunshine Day Care was building materials outside. The board is pleased with their progress.

WEATHER

WEATHER REPORT

	Max.	Min.	Precip.
Tues.	43	23	T
Wed.	36	6	.01
Thurs.	31	6	T
Fri.	23	5
Sat.	45	17
Sun.	53	32	1.54
Mon.	43	28

Copyright 2022