

Contributed photo courtesy of LIVESTOCK PLUS INC.

Mike and Dixie Sorensen (front) with children Heidi, Ray "Bubba" and Mandi. began Livestock Plus Inc. as a family operation and has continued that way in many regards throughout its 28-year history.

April issue of Livestock Plus Inc. will be the last

By CALEB NELSON
Adair County Free Press

---

Mike Sorensen of Greenfield made a big announcement last week, saying the April 2023 issue of Livestock Plus Inc. will be the last.

The publication that began in Greenfield has been going for 28 years, known as the publication for cowboys and kids. Sorensen said he's sad to see it end, however, he and his family made the decision so they can experience a little slower-paced life.

"Both Mike, Dixie and their partners the Allen Family are living a life with what they think are active 25-year-old minds, but we have 70-year-old bodies that say slow up a little and take some stress out of our lives," Sorensen wrote in an announcement in the April issue to customers and followers. "To do this, we have decided that the April 2023 issue will be the last issue of Livestock Plus, Inc.," as it is today.

Livestock Plus began with just Sorensen's family. He acknowledges there

LIVESTOCK
Continued on p 2