

Bingo for Turkey Winners

By Barb Wuestewald

Last Saturday evening at 6 p.m. visitors for turkey bingo started arriving at the Memorial Hall in Manilla. Most people bought their bingo cards for the evening, claimed a spot at a table, and then headed toward the kitchen for their evening meal. Chamber members were ready to serve the hotdogs or maid-rites, chips with many different desserts to choose from.

By 7 p.m., around 100 people were ready to play bingo. Steve Vollstedt called the numbers. When BINGO was yelled out, Pat Wuestewald and Janell Vollstedt were ready to check the numbers to see if the card was a winner and Barb Wuestewald documented the names of the winners (and runners up) for this Manilla Times article. If there was a tie, a deck of cards helped choose the turkey winner and the other "winners" got $5.00 of lucky bucks to spend in Manilla.

Winners were: 1) Megan Irwin, (Caitlin Lahr), 2) Mark Whitmer, 3) David Bohlmann, 4) Mary Hermeling, 5) Mary Rasmussen, 6) Kim Cox, 7) Angelica Zamago, 8) Rhonda Christensen, 9) Marlene Blum, 10) Jeremy Wax, 11) Casey Luberta, 12) Aubrey Alexander, (Carma Birks, Stella Bexten), 13) Coleen Schrum, 14) Stella Bexten, 15) Todd Gruhn, (Mary Hermeling), 16) Sam Hottendorf, 17) Nancy Simonsen, 18) Adrianna Winey, 19) Devin Swanson, and 20) Stella Bexten.

BLACK OUT was then played to see who would win a 20# turkey. Dawn Lorenzen was the winner. Virginia Rasmussen came in second and got $5.00 of Lucky Bucks

The annual event was sponsored by the Manilla Chamber of Commerce.

Annual Subscription Campaign by IKM-Manning Middle School Student Council continues

The 2022 school subscription campaign is speeding by, and the IKM-Manning Middle School Student Council members are doing a great job of selling subscriptions. With three weeks remaining, 96 subscriptions have been sold, meaning the student council will receive at least a $480 contribution from Kock Publishing for their projects during the coming school year.

Sales will continue through December 12, and the official check presentation will be held later that week, contributing $5 for each subscription sold and presenting gift certificates for $100, $50 and $25 for the top three salespeople in the campaign.

Students receive one point for each subscription sold, and two points for each new subscription. Twenty-one new subscriptions have already been sold as of this week.

Jack Riesselman continues to lead the sales statistics, with 33 points, but second and third places in the contest are up in the air. Ella Sanford is currently in second place with 15 points, Ava Muhlbauer is third with 13 points, and Andy Booth and Caylie Rasmussen have each accumulated 11 points. Karsyn Lorenzen has 10 points, followed by Annabelle Blum with 9, Keagen Eiseheid with 8 and Gauge Julin with 7.

The holiday break should mean additional sales for the middle schoolers, and the donation total will continue to grow! Watch upcoming editions for more details on the progress of this year's campaign!
