Sports Correspondents

Are you interested in the local sports scene? How about attending local sports events and sharing what you saw with our readers? The Clinton Herald is seeking freelance writers to do just that as we work to fill out our Clinton Herald sports coverage.

All it takes is a love of the game, good grammar and the ability to write a story to meet our publication deadline. Taking photos and knowledge of social media would also help us fill out our coverage.

If interested, contact:
