up like a storm, getting ready to make that long flight all the way around the world.” About that globe-spanning trip to visit every good boy and girl, Mr. Kringle (with a twinkle in his eye) gave a carefully crafted answer so as to not reveal too much of his ‘Santa’s Magic.’

“It’s a question that’s been asked for millions of years,” he said. “It’s just the belief in the heart of everyone that makes it happen.” Despite this being the busiest time at the North Pole, Santa always carves out time to drop in on Solon.

“Well, I’ve heard about the Legion and all of the great things that they do for the community, and I told Mrs. Claus I’ve got to go on down and just be a part of it and show my appreciation to them too.”

Not everybody was thrilled to see Santa Claus during his recent visits to Solon. Here, Cassidy Miller, all of three years old, sought the safety and comfort of her mom’s arms rather than face the Jolly Old Elf at the Solon State Bank.
