Strawberries in the snow

A semi bring-ing strawberries from Georgia pulled into the VFW parking lot last week bring-ing fresh fruit to the frozen town. It was the sec-ond year in a row that strawberry day was snowy.

ELC STATE SPEECH STUDENTS EARN HIGH RATINGS AT STATE

Hengeveld qualifies for All-State

One Estherville Lincoln Central individual speech participant was selected for All-State 2023 – senior Saige Hengeveld for musical theater – performing. The All-State festival will be held at University of Northern Iowa in Cedar Falls on March 27.

Last Thursday, five students took the opportunity to practice their state individual speech entries in front of a friendly audience at Rotary Club. Saturday, they joined a number of their classmates at state competition, where most of the entries received a I rating.

Students receiving the I rating include: Kai Li Dong (acting and original oratory), Brock Irwin (prose), Emily Paulson (poetry), Eli Ross (after dinner), Quimby Ross (review), Shelby Brosh (original oratory), Brynn Finley (storytelling) Grace Johnson (musical theater) and Saige Hengeveld (musical theater). Three students received II ratings at state: Jennifer Hernandez (poetry), Brynn Finley (musical theater) and Sophia Schumacher (musical theater).
