Toledo PEO sponsors 'Beauty and the Beast'

NEWS-CHRONICLE

PEO Toledo DF sponsored Opera Iowa's Gretry and Borths' Beauty and the Beast, March 10, 2023, at the Wieting Theatre as a service project to help with the Wieting Theatre's Phase II debt. PEO co-committee members (left to right) Kim Nelson, Charlene Wells-Kenkel, and Mary Fasse-Shaw presented to (left to right) Guild President Leann Clemman and Guild members Denise Fletcher and Michelle Evans a check for $7,315.06. PEO Toledo Chapter DF would like to thank all the businesses that donated and the patrons who came to the opera.

COUNCIL

littering, and the use of the tree line as a bathroom.

Also, at Monday's meeting, Kyle Howe officially became ex-Toledo Police Sgt. Howe as the council accepted his formal resignation. City Attorney Mike Marquess had a press release prepared stating that the City of Toledo is cutting all ties with Officer Howe. A friend of Shyla Wolf had the floor during public comment to let it be known how this incident has affected Ms. Wolf.

Chief Quigley reported that the Toledo Police Department responded to 110 calls between April 10 and April 23 with three arrests made. Chief Quigley blissfully told of the beautiful new slate gray Tahoe police vehicle that is being outfitted and will be ready for the road in another week or two.

Officer Nick Ryan graduated from the Iowa Law Enforcement Academy 307th basic class making him a state certified peace officer. Ryan is now in his first phase of field training with Toledo Lt. Wunn.

Public works have been patching streets and getting ready for the city wide cleanup. It was also discussed whether or not Director Kendall Jordan was allowed to buy a white truck or if he had to buy another red one like the rest of the Toledo Public Works pickups.

The council discussed possible lodging locations for RAGBRAI riders in July and how they encourage everyone and their brother to volunteer. A pay request was approved for concrete work from the D. W. Zinser Company.

A new member was appointed to the Toledo Library Board. A motion was approved to charge the Tama County Supervisors for use of the Reinig Center for certain meetings and public hearings.

Before adjourning, the council went into a closed session to discuss the impending litigation against the City.
